++ Valid for broadcast between 0600 and 1800

Headline:
Some rain today, but clear and dry overnight.

Today:
A changeable day with early rain, perhaps heavy times, clearing to sunny spells through the morning. Turning cloudy again for the afternoon with a few scattered showers, but becoming sunnier and drier from the west later in the afternoon. Maximum temperature 20 deg C (68 deg F).

Tonight:
Cloud will clear away eastwards through the evening to leave a dry night with long clear spells. Perhaps some patchy mist or fog forming in prone locations overnight. Minimum temperature 9 deg C (48 deg F).

Monday:
A fine day once any morning fog has cleared. The odd passing cloud, but otherwise plenty of warm sunshine. Temperatures slightly higher than on Sunday. Maximum temperature 20 deg C (68 deg F).

Outlook for Tuesday to Thursday:
Dry with sunny or bright spells on Tuesday. Becoming breezy Wednesday but largely dry and bright before rain arrives later. Cloudy and with longer spells of rain Thursday.
